1. Propaganda agitation against the Tito regime has been strongly felt in Belgrade. Adherents to the pro-Cominform Communist Party have been circulating among the populace in the guise of ordinary citizens and spreading dissatisfaction by emphasizing the following points; low wages; scarcity of adequate living quarters for the people; and shortages in medicines and medical facilities.
2. The pro-Cominformists have been using the following propaganda line in criticism of the Tito regime when talking to Yugoslav citizens whom they judge to be "safe":
 - a. The Tito Government has sold out to the Americans;
 - b. Raw materials produced by Yugoslavia are being exported to America and Great Britain at prices lower than actual cost;
 - c. Since the Tito-Cominform split, Yugoslavia has lost its economic independence; consequently, she will soon lose her political independence as well; and
 - d. When a pro-Cominform agitator is aware that he is speaking to a monarchist sympathizer, he states that the Soviet Union would sponsor the return of King Peter.
3. Although pro-Cominform agitators are extremely cautious in their methods, nevertheless, they have been spreading their propaganda unceasingly.
